The Maritime House of Prayer (MHOP) in Canada was birthed in the spring of 2006. The vision is threefold: the House of Prayer is to be a place of worship, intercession, and healing. It will be an opportunity to connect with other followers of Jesus who have a passion to pray and seek the Lord for transformation in our cities.

The unique aspect of MHOP is that it is a Mobile Maritime House of Prayer. In many cities, towns, and villages of the Maritimes there will be a group of local people who will come together one day a month in their own city, town or village. This "day" will be a date of the month that will be chosen by the core group and they will take responsibility for ensuring that this twenty-four hour period (midnight to midnight) of worship and intercession will take place in their location each month. The physical location (building) may change monthly but the geographic location will be consistent.

The hope is that many different churches and denominations will be involved each month as people come together to participate in the 24-7 worship and prayer experience. As this takes place, there will be an increase of unity among the body of Christ.

We look forward to seeing the Maritimes covered with 24-7 prayer and worship.

NORDIC 24-7 PRAYER

Nordic friends decided to revive the Nordic 24-7 blog. They invite the Nordic 24-7 family to join them in using the blog to communicate with each other. They are not looking for articles, but would like to hear about updates on 24-7 prayer.

Prayer as Community: Convers Community, Germany

Atheism & unemployment prevail as the lasting legacy of Communism in the villages around Leipzig, East Germany. But there is hope! Meet a truly radical modern-day, monastic community which has moved into the picturesque village of Ramsdorf. They pray five times a day, renovate a derelict school, play football and offer free art-classes for the locals. "Our neighbours just call us 'The Christians' because we're the only ones they've ever known," says Markus Laegel. "It's scary because the way we live will define Jesus to them."

The 24-7 Shorts are a labor of love of an incredible team of filmmakers, designers, web developers, writers and more.

Isn't it strange that something as simple as 24-7 Prayer can be so hard to explain? We are working hard to change that through creative storytelling and by using new tools (like a new 24-7 International website). We also want to continue giving these Shorts away free to anyone who wants them. Join us in these efforts by making a donation today.

Fascinate is a national high school conference connecting teenagers to the prayer movement. It is based on Psalm 119:37—a young man's cry to the Lord to turn his eyes from worthless things and to be revived in the way of the Lord.

This annual high school conference is for a generation of young people who desire to live radical lives of holiness and devotion, and who are seeking the glory of the Lord, that campuses and cities across the earth might be transformed. The conference will focus on themes that will help young adults grow in intimacy with God, and live in wholehearted abandonment to Jesus.

- Speakers include Mike Bickle, Lou Engle, David Sliker, Corey Russell, Misty Edwards, and Jesse Engle.

- Worship leaders include Matt Gilman, Cory Asbury, and others from IHOP-KC.

Wednesday 1st of July 2009 - a Day of prayer and fasting for the 24-7 Family

On the 10th anniversary of the 24-7 prayer movement, they would very much value your prayers for:

1. God's specific provision to invest into resources generation for the international 24-7 prayer movement
2. God's provision for all areas and aspects of the 24-7 movement (finance, workers for the harvest and buildings)
3. Churches, cities, campuses and communities to continue to be impacted by prayer-centered life.

They would appreciate any prayers prayed over the coming month!
